CODE OF CONDUCT

All participants, chairs, delegates and advisors must ensure the existence of a respectful and safe environment. Failure to do so will result in being asked to leave PASMUN 2022.

- Delegates must display diplomatic behavior at all times.
- Avoid the use of cellphones
- Delegates must follow the dress code.
- Delegates who do not follow the rules of the committee will be given a warning. If the action persists, the delegate will be asked to leave the session.
- During the session, the name displayed on the screen must be “Country - Committee”
- Links to committee sessions must not be shared with people who are not participating.
- Advisors are ultimately responsible for the actions of their delegates. Advisors must be available at all times and supportive of rules that promote a respectful and safe environment.
- Further disciplinary action might be taken in accordance with the student handbook of the school delegates are part of.

DRESS CODE

This simulation kindly encourages all delegates to dress professionally for the event since this is a Model United Nations simulation in which members should maintain a diplomatic position. It is a symbol of respect towards the country that each delegate is representing and to their fellow delegates and committees. Delegates who refuse to follow the dress code will be penalized.

The official dress code for PASMUN is as follows:
